Federico Monetta present the new project in piano solo Back to the origins.

Realized with the valuable support of ProHelvetia.

"I took a year to make this music, to think about it, to arrange it for solo piano.

I chose the Fazioli because I was surprised by its incredible sound."

9 original tracks weave together jazz, popular music, rhythms and blues.

I colori del cielo an explosion of colors, gospel energy!

Il Viaggio the story of a people on a journey to the promised land.

Message from the sky stop controlling and be ruled, that's what the pianist did.

Nespolino Chorinho time with a catchy melody!

Bach to the origins back to home, to the piano, to popular melodies. To yourself, to the origins.

BIOGRAPHY

Born in August 1986 in Ivrea (Italy), he started playing the piano at the age of 7. He attended the Conservatory of Aosta (Italy), where he graduated with top marks in classical piano. Later he approaches the study of jazz with Mario Rusca, Franco D'Andrea, Lucio Terzano, Renato Chicco, Dado Moroni, Fabrizio Bernasconi, Andrea Pozza, after which he continues his studies at the "Haute Ecole de Musique" de Lausanne in Switzerland with Emil Spanji where he obtained a bachelor's and a master's in jazz piano.

Through the years he has had the opportunity of playing with the following musicians both national and international: Fabrizio Zanotti, Mauro Gino, Marco Giovinazzo, Barbara Raimondi, Alessandro Minetto, Federico Puppi, Alberto Mandarini, Stefano Blanc, Leonard Simaku, Eriola Gripshi, Massimo Baldioli, Enrico Ruggeri, Danielle Di Majo, Roberto Regis, Carlo Pavese, Thierrie Lalo, Ruben Bellavia, Michele Aneli, Fabrizio Bosso..

After playing with many bands of different styles, he decided to spend some time on his music and started his quartet, Federico Monetta Quartet, with whom he released the albums "Walking in my soul" and "Lakes". With the Federico Monetta quartet he has toured all over Europe.

Currently teaching jazz piano at the EJMA Valais in Martigny, Sion and Sierre, Switzerland.
